

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

OTE 85-6950

October 22, 1985

Dr. Floretta McKenzie
Superintendent, Washington D.C.
School System
415 12th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20004

Dear Dr. McKenzie:

In recognition of your acknowledged experience and expertise in the area of education, we invite you to address the Advanced Intelligence Seminar on the topic of "Current Trends in Education" on November 13, 1985 from 8:30 to 11:00 a.m.

The Seminar as one of our senior developmental courses is designed for senior intelligence officers (grade GS-14 - GS-15) who will be in positions to influence Agency response to domestic and foreign trends over the next five years. The course goal is to expose these officers to alternative viewpoints and perspectives on intelligence and its role in a democratic society. We ask our speakers to prepare no more than 50 minutes of prepared remarks in order to allow for an indepth seminar discussion and question and answer session.

We look forward to your favorable reply and to the opportunity to hear your views on the important issue of current trends in education. To confirm this invitation, please contact

STAT
STAT

Sincerely,

STAT

Director
of
Training and Education

cc: Mrs. C. Vincent

STAT

Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2011/08/08 : CIA-RDP89-00955R000100070034-3

Page Denied

Sanitized Copy Approved for Release 2011/08/08 : CIA-RDP89-00955R000100070034-3

Central Intelligence Agency

Washington, D.C. 20505

OTE 85-6951

October 22, 1985

Vice Admiral John M. Poindexter
Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
The White House Office
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Admiral Poindexter:

In recognition of your acknowledged experience and expertise in foreign policy matters, we invite you to address the Advanced Intelligence Seminar on the topic of "Intelligence Support in War and Peace" on November 19, 1985 from 12:30 to 3:00 p.m.

The Seminar as one of our senior developmental courses is designed for senior intelligence officers (grade GS-14 to GS-15) who will be in positions to influence Agency response to domestic and foreign trends over the next five years. The course goal is to expose these officers to alternative viewpoints and perspectives on intelligence and its role in a democratic society. We ask our speakers to prepare no more than 50 minutes of prepared remarks in order to allow for an indepth seminar discussion and question and answer session.

We look forward to your favorable reply and to the opportunity to hear your views on the important issue of intelligence support priorities in the coming decade. To confirm this invitation, please contact

[Redacted]

Sincerely,

[Redacted]

Director
of Training and Education